(ii) any sum payable to any co-operative society, including a land mortgage bank, registered or deemed to be registered under the Madras Co-operative Societies Act, 1932 (Madras Act VI of 1932), or under the Travancore-Cochin Co-operative Societies Act,

30th March 1959]

1951 (Travancore-Cochin Act X of 1952), if the right of the society to recover the sum did not arise by reason of an assignment made subsequent to the date of the commencement of this Act;

- (iii) any liability arising out of a breach of trust;
- (iv) any liability in respect of maintenance;
- (v) any liability in respect of wages or remuneration due as salary or otherwise for services rendered; or

(c) "Gramdan villager" means any person residing on the date of the commencement of this Act in any village or hamlet specified in the Schedule or in any village or hamlet included in the Schedule by a notification under clause (b) of sub-section (2) of section 1.

8. Bar of suits and applications.—(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law, custom or contract, no suit for recovery of a debt shall be instituted, and no application for execution of a decree for debt shall be made, against any Gramdan villager in any civil or revenue Court before the expiry of the period of one year from the date of the commencement of this Act.

Explanation I.—Where a debt is payable by a Gramdan villager jointly or jointly and severally with any other person, no suit or application of the nature mentioned in this sub-section shall be instituted or made either against such other person or against the Gramdan villager before the expiry of the period mentioned in this sub-section.

Explanation II.—For the purposes of this Act, a suit in which a decree for debt is prayed for shall be deemed to be a suit for the recovery of a debt, notwithstanding that other reliefs are prayed for in such suit and a decree shall be deemed to be a decree for debt, notwithstanding that other reliefs are granted in such decree:

Provided that a suit for possession of land shall not be deemed to be a suit for recovery of a debt by reason merely of mesne profits being also prayed for in such suit:

Provided further that nothing contained in this sub-section shall apply to any portion of a decree other than that relating to a debt.

(2) Where a creditor institutes a suit for recovery of a debt during the period specified in sub-section (1) or after the Gramdan villager has paid or deposited into Court the instalments specified in sub-section (1) of section 4 and during the period when he is so entitled to pay or deposit the Court may decree the suit but shall direct the plaintiff to bear his own costs and pay the costs of the defendant who is a Gramdan villager.

[30th March 1959]

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall be a bar to the Court making any order as to costs as between the plaintiff and other defendants who are not Gramdan villagers.

4. Payment of debt in instalments.—(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law, custom, contract or decree of Court, any Gramdan villager shall be entitled to pay the total amount of debt by him in three equal annual instalments on or before the 1st July of each of the three years following the expiry of the period specified in sub-section (1) of section 3 with the interest due on such instalment up to the date of the payment of that instalment.

(2) Where in respect of a decree for debt passed before the date of the commencement of this Act, a debtor fails to make any one of the payments specified in sub-section (1), the decree-holder shall be entitled to execute the decree in respect of the instalment which is in default.

(3) In any suit instituted on or after the date of the commencement of this Act, the Court in decreeing the suit shall provide for one payment of such instalments as would have become due under the provisions of sub-section (1).

(4) Where in any suit for the recovery of a debt pending on the date of the commencement of this Act, the debtor claims to be a Gramdan villager, the Court shall, if the debtor is a Gramdan villager, pass a decree for payment of such instalments as would become payable under the provisions of sub-section (1).

(5) Nothing contained in this Act shall bar the Court from passing a decree or making an order in an application for execution of the decree under such terms and conditions as may be more favourable to the debtor than those provided for in this section either of its own motion upon a consideration of all the circumstances of the case or upon an agreement between the parties.

(6) Where in any suit to recover a debt or in any application for the execution of a decree therefor, the debt is payable by a Gramdan villager jointly or jointly and severally with any other person, the Court shall pass a decree or make an order for the payment of the debt found due from the Gramdan villager as provided in this section as against the Gramdan villager and make such provision in the decree or order against such other person as the circumstances of the case may warrant.

(7) The provisions of sub-section (1) shall, for purposes of execution, be deemed to be a subsequent order of Court within the meaning of clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 48 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act V of 1908).

5. Deposit of debt into Court.—(1) Any Gramdan villager may deposit any of the instalments as provided in section 4 into the Court having jurisdiction to entertain a suit for recovery of the debt or into the Court which passed the decree, as the case may be, and apply to the Court to record part-satisfaction of the debt.

30th [March 1959]

(2) Where any such application is made, the Court shall after notice to the creditor make an order recording part-satisfaction of the debt if the amount deposited is the correct amount.

(3) The Court shall dismiss the application—

(a) if the applicant is not a Gramdan villager, or

(b) if the liability is not a debt, or

(c) if the amount deposited is insufficient and the applicant on being required by the Court to deposit the deficit amount within a time fixed by the Court, fails to do so.

(4) Any Gramdan villager entitled to make such deposit may, before the date on which any instalment is due, apply to the Court having jurisdiction under sub-section (1) for an extension of time for making the deposit of the whole or any portion of such instalment and the Court, may, after notice to the creditor, extend the time for payment of such, instalment or part thereof for such period as it thinks fit.

(5) The procedure laid down in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act V of 1908), for the trial of suits shall, as far as may be, apply to the applications under this section.

6. Appeals.—An appeal shall lie from an order made by a Court under section 5, as if such an order relates to the execution, discharge or satisfaction of a decree within the meaning of section 47 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act V of 1908).

7. Exclusion of time for limitation.—In computing the period of limitation for a suit for recovery of a debt or an application for the execution of a decree for debt, the time during which the institution of the suit or the making of the application was barred under section 3 shall be excluded.

8. Effect of payment or deposit under section 4 of section 5.—Where a debt is payable by a Gramdan villager either by himself or jointly or jointly and severally with any other person and where the Gramdan villager makes payment or deposits amount towards that debt as provided for in section 4 of section 5, a fresh period of limitation shall be computed from the time when the payment or deposit was made both against the Gramdan villager and such other person.

9. Power to make rules.—(1) The State Government may, by notification, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

(2) All rules made and all notifications issued under this Act shall, as soon as possible after they are made or issued, be placed on the table of both the Houses of the Legislature and shall be subject to such modifications by way of amendment or repeal as the Legislature may make either in the same session or in the next session.
